

Policy to address the non-compliance of Registered Members in CPD

Council of the Society, at its meeting on the 15th of September 2007, agreed the following policy to address the non-compliance of Registered Members in CPD.

Non-compliance in CPD will be taken to be:

- a. the non submission by Registered Members of evidence of CPD activities via CPD logs or

- b. Registered members who submit logs but the logged activities fall significantly short of the required level.

Following notification of non-compliance and having been reminded of the need to submit CPD details, any Registered Members who does not comply with the Society's policy on CPD shall:

- i. Be removed from the Society's Register and their Certificate of Registered Membership shall not be renewed;
- ii. Have their name removed from the Society's list of Registered Psychologists on the PSI website;
- iii. Be subject to the provisions of Article 15 of the Society's Articles of Association if they continue to use the designation Registered Psychologist of the Psychological Society of Ireland when he/she is not on the Society's Register;
- iv. Be required to engage in appropriate CPD activities for a period of one year or longer;
- v. Following completion of the required CPD, be required to complete and submit a CPD log to the Society using the prescribed format;
- vi. Be required to apply for re-admission to the Society's Register and pay the associated scrutiny fee.
